Sales Tax: Navigating Multistate Compliance in the Digital Age Self-Study Webinar (2 Hours)

ST17023F ST170

Self Study Webcast Dec 20 - Dec 21

Overview:

In addition to evolving economic and physical presence nexus standards, states have begun imposing sales tax on software, digital goods and online services--all of which create complications for taxpayers and enforcement officials, who must classify and source the transactions. As a result, companies must now establish baselines for:

- How sales tax must be paid
- Sourcing taxable sales of products and services
- Automating the sales tax compliance process
- Managing sales tax obligations to minimize risk

Objective:

To provide tax professionals with an overview on the evolving sales tax nexus landscape, including the impact of state imposed sales tax on software, and digital goods and services.
