Self Study Webcast
Dec 20 - Dec 21

Overview:

This specialized self-study webinar for corporate accountants will satisfy your mandatory ethics requirement. You will benefit from a comprehensive review of the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct for CPAs in business and learn how to apply these ethical rules to real-world corporate dilemmas. You'll learn the best ways to:

- Use professional standards to resolve common corporate ethical problems
- Exercise independence, integrity and professional responsibility in a business setting
- Deal with confidential company information
- Effectively handle the six threats to compliance
- Apply lessons learned from recent financial scandals
- Deal with all the implications of PCAOB Auditing Standard 18 for companies

Objective:

To satisfy the Ethics requirement for CPAs and emphasize the need for prudent ethical judgment when interpreting the rules and determining the public interest. This self-study webinar is oriented for CPAs in business, rather than CPAs in public practice and features the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct Conceptual Framework for Members in Business. You'll use actual case studies and discussion questions to understand how to apply the rules to real-life ethical dilemmas that you may face in the business world.

This self-study webinar qualifies to satisfy the general Professional Ethics requirement in all states, except the following states which require state-specific Ethics: AR, AZ, DE, FL, LA, MI, MS, NJ, NY, OR, TN, TX, UT, VA, WA, WY.
