Self Study Webcast
Dec 20 - Dec 21

Overview:

As more US companies enter into arrangements with their global counterparts, a basic understanding of IFRS has become increasingly important. This self-study webinar will highlight the key differences between US GAAP and IFRS and allow you to:

- Analyze financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS of foreign competitors, customers, subsidiaries, potential joint venture and alliance partners
- Identify completed and proposed convergence between the IASB and FASB
- Understand the scope and transitional issues of IFRS adoption

Objective:

To provide accountants with a clear understanding of IFRS and the know-how to analyze financial statements prepared in accordance with them. You'll review the important differences between US GAAP and IFRS. You'll also learn how to monitor international convergence progress and how to assess the current effects of IFRS on your company.
